CONSTITUTION OF THE DIOCESE OF LEXINGTON

ARTICLE I

The Diocese shall be known and distinguished by the name of THE DIOCESE OF LEXINGTON, which is comprised of the counties of Boone, Gallatin, Owen, Franklin, Anderson, Mercer, Boyle, Casey, Pulaski and Wayne, in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and all territory in Kentucky east of those counties.

ARTICLE II

The Constitution and Canons of The Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America are hereby fully recognized and acknowledged and to which adherence shall be given in and by the Diocese of Lexington.

ARTICLE III

Section 1. A Convention of the Church in the Diocese of Lexington shall be held annually, at such time and place as appointed by the last preceding regular Convention. The Bishop or, if there be no Bishop, the Standing Committee, may, for any good or urgent reason, change the time and place appointed.

Section 2. Special meetings of the Convention may, when necessary, be called by the Bishop on his own motion. If there be no Bishop or if the Bishop is unable to act due to sickness or if the Bishop has been absent from the Diocese for a period of six months or longer, special meetings of the Convention may be called by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE IV

The Convention shall be composed of Clergy and Lay Deputies, constituting one deliberative body. All Presbyters and Deacons, of the Episcopal Church canonically resident in this Diocese and Lay Deputies shall be entitled to seats and votes in the Convention. Each Parish and Mission in union with this Convention shall be entitled to representation in the Convention by Lay Deputies in such numbers as may be prescribed by Canon: provided, no person under ecclesiastical censure or process shall be entitled to seat or vote in this Convention: and, provided, that any Parish or Mission ceasing, in the judgment of the Convention, to function as such shall be suspended from representation therein: or, at the option of the Convention, any Parish which does not continue to fulfill the canonical conditions required for admission as a Parish, may be reduced to the status of Mission. Provision shall be made by Canon for the adjudication of any cases arising hereunder.

ARTICLE V

The Bishop, unless there be a Vacancy in the Episcopate or the Bishop is unable to be present by reason of illness or absence for any cause of which the Convention shall have received notice, together with one-third of all Clergy canonically resident in this Diocese and one-third of all the Lay Deputies entitled to seats and votes shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a majority of those present may adjourn to the next day.

ARTICLE VI

Unless otherwise required by the Constitution and Canons of The Episcopal Church or by this Constitution, in all matters that shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and the Laity shall deliberate in one body and vote as individuals. The concurrence of a majority of those present and voting shall give validity to any measure not required by Canon to be voted on by orders, in which case the concurrence of a majority of those present and voting in each order shall be required. When required by five or more members, there shall be a vote by orders. No vote may cast by proxy. In the event of a tie vote, the president of the Convention shall be entitled to cast a vote.

ARTICLE VII

The Bishop shall be the President of the Convention, and shall preside at all meetings of the Convention. The President's duties shall be to present to the Convention, as often as the President may deem expedient, a general view of the state of the Church: to preserve order during the time of session: to put the question, collect the votes, and declare the decision: and, generally, to exercise the powers ordinarily incident to the position of presiding officer. The President may make any motion conducive to the good of the Church, and may enter into debate, but, in either event, shall relinquish the chair to the Vice President or a president, pro tempore: and the President may express views on any subject, after it has been discussed, before a vote thereon. The Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and the Suffragan Bishop, if there be one, shall be Vice Presidents of the Convention and shall serve as President, pro tempore, upon designation of the President or in the event of the President's absence or inability to serve. If there be no other Bishops of the Diocese, the President may appoint from the order of Presbyters a president, pro tempore. If no Bishop of this Diocese be present and able to act, the president of the Standing Committee shall call the Convention to order and the Convention shall immediately choose by ballot a president from among the order or Presbyters.

Such person shall perform all the duties and possess all the privileges of that office specified herein or by Canon, but shall not call special meetings of the Convention unless a majority of the Standing Committee so requires.

ARTICLE VIII

Annually, immediately upon the assembling of the Convention, the Secretary of the Convention shall be elected, whose duty it shall be to record the proceedings of the Convention, to notify the Parishes generally of the time and place of the meetings of the Convention, to preserve its journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of the successor to the office all books and papers relative to the concerns of the Convention which may be in the Secretary's possession. A Treasurer shall also be elected annually, whose duty it shall be to receive and disburse the funds of the Convention, by order of the Convention or of the Executive Council. The Treasurer shall render an account of the transactions annually to each Convention. The fiscal year shall be so determined by the Executive Council

ARTICLE IX

There shall be a Standing Committee of six persons, three from the Order of the Clergy canonically resident in the Diocese and practicing his or her clerical vocation within the Diocese and three from the order of the Laity who are adult, confirmed communicants in good standing of a Parish or Mission within the Diocese, one whom from each Order shall be elected annually by the Convention, each to serve for a term of three years. The Standing Committee shall have the power to fill from the order affected vacancies in its body to serve until the next regular meeting of the Convention, shall perform the duties and have such other powers only set forth in the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church and in the Constitutions and Canons of this Diocese. It may make any regulations, not on conflict therewith, it deems proper for the conduct of its duties.

ARTICLE X

The election of a Bishop of this Diocese shall be made by a concurrent vote of the Clerical Deputies and of the Lay Deputies in Convention assembled, the two orders voting by ballot separately, in opening Convention. When all the votes of both Orders shall have been deposited, the Tellers of the Clerical and of the Lay vote, respectively, shall proceed to count the votes. The candidate for Bishop receiving the affirmative vote of a majority of those present and voting in each Order shall be declared to be duly elected. Immediately after an election the Convention shall proceed to sign the testimonials.

ARTICLE XI

Each Parish and Mission within this Diocese is entitled to the entire benefit of this Constitution and each is bound, equally with the other Parishes and Missions in the Diocese, by this Constitution and by every Canon or other rule for the government of the Church which shall be adopted by any Convention acting under this Constitution.

ARTICLE XII

Any proposition for any changes and amendment of this Constitution must be made in writing and as to which assent shall be given by a majority of the members then present in the Convention. It shall then lie over for consideration until the next Convention, shall then be voted upon by Orders, a two-thirds vote of those present in each order in its favor being necessary to its adoption.

ARTICLE XIII

In the event of any conflict between this Constitution or the Canons of the Diocese with those of the General Church, which conflict is not authorized thereby, the provisions of the Constitution or Canons of the General Church shall prevail. In the event of any conflict between this constitution and the Canons of the Diocese, this constitution shall prevail.

CANONS OF THE DIOCESE OF LEXINGTON

I. THE CONVENTION AND THE ORGANIZATION OF THE DIOCESE

CANON 1

OF THE CONVENTION

1.01 The affairs of the Diocese shall be managed by the Bishop, the Standing Committee, the Convention, the Executive Council, and by such other officers, agencies and entities as may be provided by these Canons and in a manner consistent with the Constitution and Canons of The Episcopal Church, the Constitution of the Diocese, and, as to secular matters, the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

1.02 The Convention is the legislative body of the Diocese, and shall exercise all powers not reserved to the Bishop by constitution, Canon or tradition, or reserved to any other entity of the Diocese.

1.03 The Membership of the Convention shall be constituted as follows:

b. All Priests and Deacons who are then canonically resident in the Diocese. No inhibited or suspended member of the Clergy shall be a member of the Convention.

c. Lay Deputies from each Parish and Mission in union with the convention. Each such Parish shall be entitled to be represented by four Lay Deputies elected at the Annual Parish Meeting, one of whom shall be a member of the Vestry with a remaining term of at least one year. Each such Mission shall be entitled to be represented by two Lay Deputies elected at the Annual Meeting of the Mission, one of whom shall be a member of the Bishop's Committee with a remaining term of at least one year. Alternate Lay Deputies shall also be elected by each Parish and Mission in such number not to exceed the number of Lay Deputies as to insure full representation at each meeting of the Convention. Alternates are encouraged to attend meetings of the Convention, but shall have no right to seat, voice or vote unless duly seated in replacement of a Deputy. The order of substitution of alternates shall be determined by their Parish or Mission. Lay Deputies shall be adult confirmed communicants in good standing of the congregation from which elected.

1.04 The Convention may grant seat and voice to such persons as it deems appropriate. Lay members of the Executive Council, Directors of the Corporation, the Treasurer, the Secretary, the Chancellor and the Vice Chancellor, not elected as members of the Convention by virtue of their office, with the right to take part in deliberations, but not vote.

Lay Deputies and Alternates shall be the Deputies and Alternates to any other meeting of the Convention prior to the succeeding Convention.

1.06 Within the fifteen days immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention, the Bishop, or if there is no Bishop, the President of the Standing Committee, shall furnish the Secretary with (1) a complete list of the Clergy canonically resident in the Diocese, setting forth those who entitled to seats in the Convention, and giving their respective Cures, Parishes, Missions, or place of residence, and (2) a complete list of all Parishes and Missions under the respective classifications.

1.07 The Secretary shall, from the Certificates of the Lay Deputies and Alternates and the Bishop's lists of Clergy and of Parishes and Missions, compile a list of Clerical Deputies, Lay Deputies and Alternates and the respective Parishes and Missions represented and any other Parishes and Mission, which compilation shall be prefixed to the Journal of the Convention. The list and certificates shall be preserved with the records of the Convention. Any dispute concerning the right of a lay member of the Convention shall be determined by a majority vote of the Convention. At the time appointed for the meeting of the Convention, and after the opening service, the Convention shall be called to order, and the number of Lay Deputies present as shown by their personal registration. A roll call may be required upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies. If it shall appear that there is a quorum in each order the Convention shall proceed to elect a Secretary for the ensuing Convention year, after which the Chair shall declare the Convention to be duly organized.

1.08 In case any Parish or Mission shall fail to elect Lay Deputies, or in case all Lay Deputies and Alternates shall fail to attend the Convention, the Rector or Vicar thereof shall be a confirmed communicant in good standing of the Parish or Mission to represent the Parish or Mission in the Convention as a Lay Deputy.

1.09 Any Deputy, Vestry, Bishop's Committee of a Mission, and the Bishop, Standing Committee, Executive Council and Officers of the Diocese may submit resolutions for consideration by the Convention by delivering the same in writing to the Secretary of the Convention on or before the fifteenth day prior to the Convention. Resolutions may be introduced at the Convention in accordance with its rule of order.

1.10 At each session of the Convention, Rules of Order and an Order of Business shall be adopted for the governing of that session. Provided, however, the Rules of Order and the Order of Business adopted at the previous Convention shall be in force for the succeeding Convention if no action to the contrary is taken.

1.11 If by the second day following that on which any action is taken by the Convention the Bishop shall in writing notify the Secretary of his disapproval thereof, such action shall not be effective unless readopted, notwithstanding such disapproval, by vote of two-thirds of each order, provided, however, the adoption of an amendment to the Canons or to the constitution over the disapproval of the Bishop shall require the vote of two-thirds of all Congregations in union with the Convention. If the Convention shall have adjourned when such disapproval is communicated, it may be acted upon as unfinished business at the next meeting of the Convention, whether special or stated.

It shall be the duty of the Rector to keep all records required by General Canons and these Canons and by the Ecclesiastical Authority, and to take order concerning the worship of the Parish, together with all that pertains thereto. The Rector may appoint (subject to the approval of the Bishop as may be required by Canons of the General Church), from time to time, fit persons to assist in all duties which may be canonically performed by lay persons, and, if the expenditure be authorized by the Vestry, may employ assistant clergy (subject to the approval in writing of the Bishop) and staff. At that meeting the Vestry shall also elect the Treasurer, who need not be a member of the Vestry, and who shall receive and account for all funds of the Parish except communion alms, and shall disburse the same as ordered by the Vestry, and to deliver all funds and records to the successor Treasurer.

17.12 The Rector or the Senior Warden, or in the absence of both, the junior Warden, or a number of members of the Vestry equal to the quorum, may call a special meeting of the Vestry, affording at least twenty-four hour notice to all members of the Vestry, which notice shall specify the purpose for and time and place of the meeting.

17.13 (a) Except as provided by Canon 17.13 (b) hereof, whenever any Parish shall cease to be self-supporting, or shall accept monetary aid from the Diocese or from the General Church, or from any source outside the Parish, toward the payment of the salary or compensation of the Rector as such, the Convention may by resolution relegate such Parish to the status of a Mission, provided, however, no such resolution shall be adopted on the date of its introduction to the Convention. A Parish may voluntarily apply in writing to the Bishop to be relegated to the status of Mission, to which the Bishop may agree by written judgment. Upon such relegation of a Parish to Mission status by action of the Convention or by Judgment of the Bishop, a certified copy of the Resolution or Judgment shall be forwarded promptly to the Vestry of the Parish, whereupon the Parish shall be a Mission and shall be governed by the provisions of the Constitution and Canons concerning Missions, the Vestry shall be the Bishop's Committee, and the Rector shall be the Vicar subject to removal by the Bishop as provided on these Canons.

17.13 (b) In the event the Rector, Wardens, and Vestry of a Parish of the Diocese determines the congregation is temporarily not able to comply with the provisions of Canon 17.01 as provided by Canon 17.13 (a) hereof and determine that such condition is expected to continue for no longer than one year, then, in that event, the Rector, Wardens, and Vestry may petition the Bishop and the Convention (or the Executive Council if the Convention is not in session) for the temporary monetary support, stating in detail and with complete documentation as may be required by the Bishop, the Convention or Executive Council and the Department of Finance, the condition of the Parish and the factors and reasons for being unable to comply with these Canons. After due consideration, and being reasonably assured the Parish can again self-support within one year from the grant of monetary support, on such conditions as may be prescribed by the grant, the Convention or the Executive Council may with the advice and consent of the Bishop make a grant of monetary support to the requesting Parish, so long as the Parish has previously conveyed its real property to the Diocese or does so as a condition of the grant, whereupon the Parish shall be deemed an "Aided Parish," with the ecclesiastical status of a Parish. In the event the Aided Parish has shown to the satisfaction of the Bishop and the Executive Council substantial progress in its plan toward compliance without having achieved self-sufficiency, the grant may be extended by the Executive Council with the consent of the Bishop for no longer than one additional year. In the event the Aided Parish does not return to compliance with this Canon 17 within the one year period or the extended period of no longer than one additional year, the Aided Parish shall thereupon without further action of the Bishop or the Convention have the status of a Mission as provided by Canon 17.13 (a) hereof.
