

Policies for the Protection of Children and Youth for the Episcopal Diocese of Lexington

A. Screening and Selection

1. Any and all church personnel who regularly work with or around children or youth shall be screened and selected utilizing at least the following:
 - a. A standard application completed by the applicant that includes an authorization for the release of information to conduct background checks and the "Code of Conduct of the Episcopal Diocese of Lexington".
 - b. Criminal records check in any state where the applicant has resided during the past seven (7) years, and any other states, if any, as determined by the church.
 - c. Sexual offender registry check in any state where the applicant has resided during the past seven (7) years.
 - d. Individual interview with the applicant.
 - e. Reference checks of persons outside the congregation who know the applicant, preferably who know how the applicant works with children or youth.
 - f. Driving or motor vehicle records check if the person may be transporting children or youth.
2. Any and all church personnel who occasionally work with or around children or youth shall be screened and selected utilizing at least the following:
 - a. A standard application completed by the applicant that includes an authorization for the release of information to conduct background checks and the "Code of Conduct of the Episcopal Diocese of Lexington".
 - b. Individual interview with the applicant.
 - c. At least one reference check of a person or persons outside the congregation who know the applicant, preferably who know how the applicant interacts with children and youth.
 - d. Driving or motor vehicle records check if the person may be transporting children or youth.
3. All information gathered about an applicant will be carefully reviewed and evaluated to make a determination, in consultation with others as necessary, of whether or not the person is appropriate to work with children and youth.
4. Church personnel who work with or around children or youth must have a personnel file that is kept where the church records are kept.
5. Criminal records checks and sexual offender registry checks will be conducted at least every five (5) years for church personnel who regularly work with or around children or youth.
6. To the extent possible, no person will be permitted to supervise immediate family members when working with or around children or youth. For the purpose of this policy, immediate family members is defined as spouse, partner, child, parent, sister, brother, similar in-law relationship, stepchild, stepparent, stepsibling, grandparent or co-habitant.
7. Church personnel who transfer within the Diocese of Lexington and apply for or are asked to, or who do undertake a position working with or around children or youth are required to undergo the same screening and selection process in section "A" above. This requirement may be met through a transfer of a copy of their personnel file to the new congregations, schools, agencies or other programs for which the applicant has worked with or around children or youth since the screening was last done as shown in the applicant's personnel file.

B. Education and Training Requirements

1. Three (3) hours of child abuse prevention education and training is required for all church personnel who regularly work with or around children and youth before they start their work with children or youth or, if that is not possible, one hour of child abuse awareness training before they start their work and the rest of the training within three months of starting.
2. One (1) hour of child abuse awareness training is required for all church personnel who occasionally work with or around children or youth before they start their work with children or youth.
3. Church personnel who are responsible for screening, selection and supervision of others in programs for children and youth are required to complete an additional three (3) hours of specialized education and training in screening, selecting and monitoring every two (2) years.

C. Monitoring and Supervision of Programs

The monitoring and supervision of programs and activities involving children and youth is important for safeguarding children and youth and involves several aspects. One aspect involves having structural guidelines or standards for the programs and activities for children and youth. These include such things as who approves new programs, how many adults need to be present and the like. In addition to setting structural guidelines and standards, church leaders must make sure the structural safeguards are followed. Programs and activities have to be monitored and supervised to do that.

Another aspect of monitoring and supervision is that supervisory personnel and others monitor and supervise the behavior of adults, youth, and other children with children and youth so that inappropriate behavior and interactions can be detected and stopped. Some behaviors and interactions are potentially harmful to children or youth in and of themselves. Examples include providing alcohol or drugs to children or youth or actually having sexual contact with a child or youth. Other behaviors and interactions are not necessarily harmful in and of themselves but are the same behaviors and interactions known to be used by those who abuse children or youth to “groom” them or their parents for eventual abuse to children or youth. Examples of those behaviors and interactions include holding children over the age of three on the lap, transporting a child or youth alone, and the like.

The structural guidelines and standards are covered in both this “Monitoring and Supervision” section and in the following section, “General Conduct for Protection of Children and Youth”. The behaviors and interactions of persons with children and youth that need to be monitored and supervised are covered in the section “General Conduct for Protection of Children and Youth” and in the “Guidelines for appropriate Affection”.

1. Every program for children and youth must have established ratios for adults and children. Compliance with the established ratio is required at all times, including activities that occur off church premises.
2. Church personnel are prohibited from being alone with a child or youth or multiple children or youth where other adults cannot easily observe them.
3. Church personnel over the age of 21 must directly supervise church personnel under the age of 18 and be physically present during all activities.
4. An up to date list of approved congregation-sponsored programs for children and youth will be maintained in the church office or other places where church records are kept.
5. Church personnel are not permitted to develop new activities for children and youth without the approval from the rector or canonical equivalent. Requests to develop new activities should be submitted in writing to the rector. The rector will consider whether the plan for a new activity includes adequate adult supervision.
6. Each program will develop age-appropriate procedures to ensure the safety of children and youth using restrooms and showers or baths.
7. When supervising or assisting private activities such as dressing, showering or diapering infants or children, church personnel will remain in an area observable by other adults or work in pairs.
8. At least two unrelated church personnel must supervise activities. When boys and girls are participating, male and female adults must be present.

D. General Conduct for the Protection of Children and Youth.

The following guidelines are intended to assist church personnel in monitoring and supervising behaviors and interactions with children and youth to identify and stop those that may be inherently harmful to children or youth, that are the type used by child molesters to groom children, youth, and their parents, or that may create the conditions where abuse can occur more easily. These guidelines should also be used to make decisions about interactions with children and youth in church sponsored and affiliated programs. They are not designed or intended to address interactions within families. When exceptions to these guidelines must be made, they should be reported to the supervisor of the church personnel making the exception as soon as possible.

1. All church personnel who work with children or youth must agree to comply with the Diocese of Lexington Guidelines for Appropriate Affection (Appendix A.).
2. No person will be allowed to volunteer to regularly work with children or youth until the person has been known to the clergy and congregation for at least six (6) months.
3. Programs for infants and children under six (6) years old will have procedures to ensure that children are released only to their parents or legal guardians or those designated by them.

4. Church personnel are prohibited from use, possession, distribution, or being under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs, or the misuse of legal drugs while participating in or assisting with programs or activities specifically for children or youth.
5. Parents or guardians must complete written permission forms before church personnel transport children and youth for a church sponsored activities or for any purpose on more than on occasional basis.
6. Church personnel will respond to children or youth with respect, consideration and equal treatment, regardless of sex, race, religion, sexual orientation, culture or socio-economic status. Church personnel will portray a positive role model for children and youth by maintaining an attitude of respect, patience, and maturity. They will avoid even the appearance of favoritism.
7. One-to-one counseling with children or youth will be done in an open or public area or other place where private conversations are possible but occur in full view of others.
8. Church personnel are prohibited from dating or becoming romantically involved with a child or youth.
9. Church personnel are prohibited from having sexual contact with a child or youth.
10. Church personnel are prohibited from possessing any sexually oriented materials (magazines, cards, videos, films, clothing, etc.) on church property or in the presence of children or youth except as expressly permitted as part of a pre-authorized educational program.
11. Church personnel are prohibited from using the Internet to view or download any sexually oriented materials on church property or in the presence of children or youth.
12. Church personnel are prohibited from discussing their own sexual activities, including dreams and fantasies, or discussing their use of sexually oriented or explicit materials such as pornography, videos or materials on or from the Internet, with children or youth.
13. Church personnel are prohibited from sleeping in the same beds, sleeping bags, tents, hotels rooms or other rooms with children or youth unless the adult is an immediate family member of all the children or youth in the bed, sleeping bag, tent, hotel room, or other room. It is acceptable to have multiple adults sleep with all the children or youth participating in one open space such as a church basement or camp lodge.
14. Church personnel are prohibited from dressing, undressing, bathing, or showering in the presence of children or youth.
15. Church personnel are prohibited from using physical punishment in any way for behavior management of children and youth. No form of physical discipline is acceptable. This prohibition includes spanking, slapping, pinching, hitting, or any other physical force. Physical force may only be used to stop behavior that may cause immediate harm to the individual or to a child, youth or others.
16. Church personnel are prohibited from using harsh language, degrading punishment, or mechanical restraint such as rope or tape for behavior management.
17. Church personnel are prohibited from participating in or allowing others to conduct any hazing activities relating to children's youth ministry or camp activities.

Responding to Problems

- A. Reporting Inappropriate Behaviors or Policy Violations with children or youth
1. When church personnel observe any behaviors that are inconsistent with the “Guidelines for Appropriate Affection”, or which may violate any provision of these “Policies for Protection of Children and Youth from Abuse”, they must immediately report their observations. Examples of inappropriate behaviors or policy violations would be seeking private time with children or youth, taking children or youth on over-night trips without other adults, swearing or making suggestive comments to children or youth, or selecting or using staff or volunteers without the required screening.
 2. Such inappropriate behaviors or possible policy violations that relate to interactions with children or youth should be reported in one of the following ways:
 - a. A telephone call or meeting with the immediate supervisor of that person,
 - b. A telephone call or meeting with the rector, if that person is not the rector;
 - c. A telephone call or meeting with a church warden if the person is the rector;
 - d. A telephone call, meeting or fax to the bishop;
 - e. Submit a “Notice of Concern” (Appendix B), signed or unsigned, to the bishop.
 3. All reports of inappropriate behavior or policy violations with children or youth will be taken seriously.
- B. Reporting Suspected Abuse of Children or Youth.
1. All church personnel are required by this policy to report known or suspected abuse of children or youth to the appropriate state authorities.
 2. Failure to report suspected abuse of children or youth may be a crime. In Kentucky, failure to report is a Class B misdemeanor. Reports may be made confidentially or anonymously. Every state, including Kentucky (KRS 620.030 to KRS 620.050), provides immunity from civil liability for persons required to report suspected abuse in good faith and without malice. Kentucky law states that it is the duty of anyone who has “reasonable cause to believe” that abuse may have occurred is required to immediately report suspected abuse. Simply stated, “in good faith” means that the person submitting the report believes what he or she is reporting to be true.
 3. In addition to reporting to the state authorities, church personnel are required to report any suspected or known abuse of children or youth that may have been perpetrated by church personnel directly to the rector of _____ Parish so the immediate and proper steps may be taken to ensure the safety of alleged victims. If the person suspected of abuse is a diocesan employee, or serving in a diocesan role, including volunteers, the report should be made directly to the bishop or his designee.
 4. Reports of suspected or known abuse that involve church personnel must be reported to the Diocese of Lexington in one or more of the following ways:
 - a. A telephone call, meeting or fax to the bishop;
 - b. A telephone call or meeting with the rector, if the rector is not the person being complained about.
 - c. Submit a “Notice of Concern” (Appendix B), signed or unsigned to the bishop.
 5. The Diocese of Lexington and _____ Parish will cooperate with any investigation by state authorities to the fullest extent appropriate and inform authorities that a concurrent internal investigation will be directed by the Diocese of Lexington.

Appendix A: Guidelines for Appropriate Affection

The Diocese of Lexington and _____ Parish are committed to creating and promoting a positive, nurturing environment for our children's and youth ministries that protect our children and youth from abuse and our church personnel from misunderstandings. When creating safe boundaries for children and youth, it is important to establish what types of affection are appropriate and inappropriate; otherwise that decision is left to each individual. Stating which behaviors are appropriate and inappropriate allows church personnel to comfortably show positive affection in ministry, and yet identify individuals who are not maintaining safe boundaries with children or youth. These "Guidelines for Appropriate Affection" are based, in large part, on avoiding behaviors known to be used by child molesters to groom children or youth and their parents for future abuse. The following guidelines are to be carefully followed by all church personnel working around or with children or youth.

1. Love and affection are part of church life and ministry. There are many ways to demonstrate affection while maintaining positive and safe boundaries with children and youth.

Some positive and appropriate forms of affection are listed below:

- Brief hugs
 - Pats on the shoulder or back
 - Handshakes
 - "High-fives" and hand slapping
 - Verbal praise
 - Touching hands, faces, shoulders and arms of children or youth
 - Arms around shoulders
 - Holding hands while walking with small children
 - Sitting besides small children
 - Kneeling or bending down for hugs with small children
 - Holding hands during prayer
 - Pats on the head when culturally appropriate. (For example, this gesture should typically be avoided in some Asian communities).
2. The following forms of affection are considered inappropriate with children and youth in ministry setting because many of them are the behaviors that child molesters use to groom children or youth and their parents for later molestation or can be, in and of themselves, sexual abuse.
 - Inappropriate or lengthy embraces
 - Kisses on the mouth
 - Holding children over three years old on the lap
 - Touching bottoms, chests or genital areas other than appropriate diapering or toileting of infants and toddlers
 - Showing affection in isolated areas such as bedrooms, closets, staff only areas or other private rooms.
 - Occupying a bed with a child or youth
 - Touching knees or legs of children or youth
 - Wrestling with children
 - Tickling children or youth
 - Piggyback rides
 - Any type of massage given by a child or youth to and adult, except large group shoulder rubs.
 - Any type of massage given by an adult to a child or youth, except large group shoulder rubs.
 - Any form of unwanted affection
 - Comments or compliments (spoken, written, or electronic) that relate to physique or body development. Examples would be, "you sure are developing," or "you look really hot in those jeans."
 - Snapping bras or giving wedgies or similar touching underwear whether or not it is covered by other clothing
 - Giving gifts or money to individual children or youth
 - Private meals with individual children or youth

Appendix D: General Definitions

- 1. Church Personnel For the purposes of this policy, the following are included in the definition of church personnel when they are functioning in their respective roles for the church:
- a. All clergy whether stipendiary, non-stipendiary, or otherwise who are engaged in ministry or service to the church.
 - b. All paid personnel whether employed in areas of ministry or other kinds of services by the diocese, its congregations, schools or other agencies. For example, sextants, cooks, office personnel, etc.
 - c. Those who contract their services to the diocese, its congregations, schools or other agencies.
 - d. Volunteers, including any person who enters into or offers him or herself for a church related service, or who actually assists with or performs a service, whether or not they have been selected or assigned to do so. Volunteers include members of advisory boards, vestries, Bishop's Committees, and board of directors. For example, altar guilds, office help, youth ministers, church school teachers, etc.
- 2. Children and youth A child is defined as anyone under the age of twelve (12) years.

A youth is defined as anyone who is at least twelve (12) years old, but not yet eighteen (18) years old. A youth may also be an individual who is eighteen (18) years old or older, but still in high school.

3. Regularly or Occasionally Work With or Around Children or Youth

For the purpose of this policy, the following are included in the definition of "church personnel who regularly work with or around children or youth".

- a. All clergy whether stipendiary, non-stipendiary, or otherwise who are engaged in ministry to the church.
- b. All paid or volunteer church personnel whose work regularly takes them through the facility or grounds or who has keys giving them access to the buildings on the grounds.
- c. All persons who supervise or assist with supervising children or youth, other than church school teachers, in ministries, programs or activities more often than occasionally.
- d. All persons who provide transportation to children or youth without other adults in the vehicle more often than occasionally.
- e. Any paid personnel whose living quarters are on the grounds of the church, school or other related agency.
- f. All vestry members or other members of similar decision-making groups who have the authority to approve the creation of ministries, programs or activities for children or youth.

Examples of church personnel who "Regularly Work With or Around Children or Youth": include, but are not limited to:

- Children's or youth choir directors
- Organists who work with children or youth
- Lay youth ministers
- Volunteer youth directors
- All church personnel who work or assist in the nursery more than four times a year
- All church personnel who work in the nursery if they are the only person over 21 present at any time.
- All staff, whether volunteer or paid, at church camps
- Adults who participate in overnight activities with children or youth more than twice a year

For the purpose of this policy, the following are included in the definition of church personnel who “Occasionally Work With or Around Children or Youth”:

- a. Church school teachers
- b. All persons who supervise or assist with supervising children or youth in ministries, programs or activities infrequently, generally no more than three times a year or for one program or activity during a year that lasts less than a month (i.e. assisting with preparation for the Christmas pageant, or teaching one “unit” of Church School for a month).
- c. All persons who provide transportation to children and youth without other adults in the vehicle infrequently, generally no more than three times a year.
- d. All persons who work or assist in the nursery four or fewer times a year, whether on an emergency basis or otherwise.
- e. Adults who participate in overnight activities with children or youth once or twice a year.

4. Types of abuse

- a. Physical abuse is non-accidental injury, which is intentionally inflicted upon a child or youth.
- b. Sexual abuse perpetrated by an adult is any contact or activity of a sexual nature that occurs between a child or youth and an adult. This includes any activity, which is meant to arouse or gratify the sexual desires of the adult, child or youth.
- c. Sexual abuse perpetrated by another child or youth is any contact or activity of a sexual nature that occurs between a child or youth and another child or youth when there is no consent, when consent is not possible, or when one child has power over the other child or youth. This includes any activity which is meant to arouse or gratify the sexual desires of any of the children or youth.
- d. Emotional abuse is mental or emotional injury to a child or youth that results in an observable and material impairment in the child or youth’s growth, development or psychological functioning.
- e. Neglect is the failure to provide for a child or youth’s basic needs or the failure to protect a child or youth from harm.
- f. Economic exploitation is the deliberate misplacement, exploitation, or wrongful temporary or permanent use of a child or youth’s belongings or money.

Appendix E: Excerpts from Reporting Child Abuse Neglect and Dependency, “A Guide for People Who Work With Kentucky Children”

“A Guide for People Who Work With Kentucky Children 2001” is published by the Kentucky Department for Community Based Services. The following information is intended to assist in reporting abuse. It is recommended that each congregation have on file a copy of this publication.

To report suspected child abuse, neglect or dependency call 1-800-752-6200 (24-hour hotline)

WHEN TO REPORT:

When you have reason to believe a child is being abused, neglected or is dependent, call the child protection hotline at 1-800-752-6200 or your county Department for Community Based Services. If in doubt, we would prefer that you call and talk over what has come to your attention. We will help you sort things out, such as whether a specific incident must be reported and to whom.

If you feel the child is in imminent danger and is in need of immediate protection, call your local police department. (Page 5).

WHO MUST REPORT

The law states that it is the duty of anyone who has reasonable cause to believe that a child is dependent, abused or neglected to report this information

KRS 620.030 states:

- (1) Any person who knows or has reasonable cause to believe that a child is dependent, neglected or abused shall immediately cause an oral or written report be made to a local law enforcement agency or the Kentucky State Police; the Cabinet or its designated representative; the commonwealth’s attorney or the county attorney; by telephone or otherwise. (pages 7-8).

WHAT THE DEPARTMENT FOR COMMUNITY BASED SERVICES NEEDS TO KNOW

The child’s identity

Any person believed to be responsible for the abuse or neglect to the child if the person is known

The nature and extent of the abuse or neglect

The name and address of the reporter, if he or she chooses

Where the child can be found (pages 10-11).

Appendix F

Code of Conduct for the Protection of Children and Youth

Read and initial each item to signify your agreement to comply with the statement.
