

Job Description: Chaplain at St. Augustine's, a Lutheran/Episcopal campus ministry at the University of Kentucky

Job Opening: Fall semester 2017

Job Summary: Responsible for facilitating spiritual development and campus outreach through St. Augustine's at the University of Kentucky

Responsible to: The Board of Directors for St. Augustine's

Responsibilities of the Chaplain: To work with the St. Augustine's Board, Episcopal Diocese of Lexington, and the Indiana-Kentucky Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America to address and respond to the religious and spiritual needs of the UK campus community; to serve as chaplain to students, faculty, and staff at the University of Kentucky; and to provide day-to-day oversight and direction of St. Augustine's.

- Provide vision and coordination for St. Augustine's
- Commit 40 hours per week to the ministry, to include, but not limited to, the following activities:
 - Being on-site and available to students for Bible study, discussion, and worship, including evening and weekend service(s), studies/classes, and activities
 - Planning and preparation (programming, email/social media/electronic communication)
 - Being a presence in the campus community for students, staff, and faculty; participating in the life of the campus community
- Assist the development of student leadership in worship planning and carrying out worship responsibilities
- Initiate and nurture relationships with persons on campus, invite them into a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ, and motivate and equip others to do the same
- Provide appropriate pastoral care to St. Augustine's members and the university community
- Foster a climate of welcome and hospitality at St. Augustine's toward all people on campus
- Participate each semester in activities on campus which promote the ministry and/or provide fundraising activities (approximately 2-4 per semester)
- Participate each semester in activities with students (e.g. attending a football game or Dance Blue – approximately 2-4 activities per semester)
- Manage the physical structure of the chapel
- Foster ecumenical relationships with other ministries or organizations on campus and in the community
- Develop and operate within a budget for the campus ministry, with the assistance of the Board and representatives from the Episcopal Diocese and the I-K Synod
- Meet regularly with the St. Augustine's Board of Directors, seeking its advice and assistance with fundraising and overall vision and mission direction for the ministry

Compensation: Set based on experience and qualifications.

About us: St. Augustine's is a place of ecumenical work and worship on the campus of the University of Kentucky. It is a shared ministry of the Episcopal Diocese of Lexington and the Indiana-Kentucky Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Applications will be considered as received. Applications will not be considered after August 1, 2017.

Contact:

St. Augustine's Chapel
472 Rose Street
Lexington KY 40508
staugchapel@gmail.com